

PSALM 77

I cried to the Lord with my voice, yes, my voice was addressed to God; and He listened to me.

<sup>2</sup> In the day of my affliction I earnestly sought the Lord; even with my hands by night before Him, and I was not deceived; my soul refused to be comforted.

<sup>3</sup> I remembered God, and rejoiced; I poured out my complaint, and my soul fainted. Selah.

<sup>4</sup> All my enemies set a watch against me; I was troubled, and did not speak.

<sup>6</sup> And I meditated; I communed with my heart by night, and diligently searched my spirit, saying,

<sup>7</sup> "Will the Lord cast off forever? And will He be well pleased no more?

<sup>8</sup> Will He cut off His mercy forever, even forever and ever?

<sup>9</sup> Will God forget to pity? Or will He shut up His compassions in His wrath?" Selah.

<sup>10</sup> And I said, "Now I have begun; this is the change of the right hand of the Most High."

<sup>11</sup> I remembered the works of the Lord; for I will remember Your wonders from the beginning.

<sup>12</sup> And I will meditate on all Your works, and will consider Your doings.

<sup>13</sup> O God, Your way is in the sanctuary; who is a great God as our God?

<sup>14</sup> You are the God that performs wonders; You have made known Your power among the nations.

<sup>15</sup> You have redeemed Your people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph, with Your outstretched arm. Selah.

<sup>16</sup> The waters saw You, O God, the waters saw You, and feared; and the depths were troubled.

<sup>17</sup> There was an abundant sound of waters; the clouds uttered a voice; for Your arrows went abroad.

<sup>18</sup> The voice of Your thunder was abroad, and around Your lightnings appeared to the world; the earth trembled and quaked.

<sup>19</sup> Your way is in the sea, and Your paths in many waters, and Your footsteps cannot be known.
